Develop Argentina - Futurology Lab

November 2025

P01 - Why Argentina 2026 is heating up

Argentina keeps signalling a rebound led by services exports, lithium/mining supply chains and AI-enabled operations. According to the World Bank country profile (data fetched Nov 16 2025 via api.worldbank.org), Argentina remains an upper-middle income economy with strong human capital, while the latest USD/ARS reference from open.er-api.com (Nov 16 2025) shows a market rate near 1405 ARS per USD, underscoring both FX volatility and arbitrage potential for dollarized businesses. This guide distills 50 concrete ventures international or local founders can launch in 2026, prioritizing tech-enabled, compliance-ready operations.

How to use: treat every page as a standalone mini-brief with TAM insight, go-to-market (GTM), stack suggestions, and KPIs. Build roadmaps by stacking 3-4 opportunities that share assets (e.g., compliance bots + FX hedging) to accelerate time-to-revenue.

P02 - Opportunity Map & Method

4. Exportability: can be replicated across LATAM once Argentine playbook is validated.
